4-H LLAMA AND ALPACA STATE FAIR

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. All animals must meet the official health requirements, general terms and ownership conditions located in the front of the State Fair 4-H/FFA Handbook/Premium List. Especially note terms and conditions on tampering, misrepresentation, conduct, drugs, etc. Officials reserve the right to require drug steroid testing and examination of animals entered for show.
2. Animals entered at the State Fair must be owned (or leased) and cared for by the 4-H member by May 15, and remain under the same continuous care until show day.
3. 4-H animals purchased, sold or offered for sale after May 15 and prior to the Indiana State Fair (including animals that have gone through a "Premium Only Auction"), shall not be eligible to show in the 4-H show at the Indiana State Fair.
4. Please go to www.indianastatefair.com and enter online. Select State Fair, look for the competitive exhibitor tab then choose online entry. If you choose to enter via mail 4-H members must postmark (no metered mail) the State Fair entry form and send along with a $15 fee per exhibitor/per project (ie. $15 for Llama (1 project), $15 for Sheep (1 project) etc.) to the State Fair Entry Dept., 1202 E. 38th St., Indianapolis, IN 46205-2869 by July 1. An additional $50 fee per exhibitor/per project must accompany entries postmarked from July 2 - 31. Only hand delivered entries will be accepted from August 1 until check-in time and must be accompanied by an additional $50 late fee per exhibitor/per project plus an additional $50 fee per animal. Make check or money order payable to the Indiana State Fair, or complete Credit Card information and signature. No cash accepted. Entry forms are available from your County Extension Office and on the website. Enter online at www.indianastatefair.com.

WARNING! If all of the information is not completed on the entry form and payment or valid credit card information enclosed, the entry form will be returned to the 4-H'er and will be subject to all applicable late fees. Be sure to photocopy entry form before mailing.

Confirmation of entries will be mailed to the exhibitor if there is sufficient mail time. Exhibitors should bring with them to the check-in table, the confirmation card or receipt, if entry was made by mail or if online entry, the electronic confirmation.

The Indiana State Fair Board is requiring all Indiana Exhibitors to provide the Indiana State Board of Animal Health required Premises ID number on all entry forms for beef and dairy cattle, goats, swine and sheep. Indiana exhibitors of horses, poultry, llamas and alpacas as well as out of state exhibitors will be requested to voluntarily provide Premises ID numbers.

To obtain a Premises ID # please contact the Indiana State Board of Animal Health at 877-747-3038 Ext. 328. Information can be found on the Indiana State Board of Animal Health website at www.in.gov/boah.

All exhibitors entering the Fairgrounds on or after Friday, August 7, must pay admission or an exhibitor ticket is required. Any exhibitor leaving the Fairgrounds, wishing to return the same day must obtain a hand stamp from the gate attendant or pay admission to re-enter. This policy will be strictly enforced. Pass outs not permitted after 8:00 pm

5. Each 4-H Llama and Alpaca may only be shown by one 4-H member at the Indiana State Fair.
6. Llamas and Alpacas will show together.
7. No intact Llama or Alpaca male 24 months of age or older will be permitted in the 4-H classes.
8. Nursing Llama mothers may not be accompanied in the ring by their babies. We recommend not showing nursing llama mothers.
9. No Llama under the age of five (5) months may be shown.
10. Each 4-H member may enter one (1) animal in the State Fair 4-H Llama show. Each exhibitor can enter the animal in every class for which it is eligible.
11. 4-H'ers wishing to compete in open class including leaping llama and llama limbo must fill out open class entry form, follow deadlines and pay fees as listed in open class Handbook/Premium List.
12. The same animal may not be shown in the same performance class category in both the 4-H and the open show (i.e. obstacle category, PR category, pack category). However, the same animal can be shown in different performance class categories in both the 4-H and open show (i.e. 4-H pack and open obstacle, etc.) by the same handler. Exhibitors in 4-H classes may not enter the same open show youth classes.
13. Appropriate attire is required for all 4-H Llama exhibitors. Please refer to the ALSA handbook for guidelines. No T-shirts advertising the club are allowed in any class.
14. The gate will not be held for any class to allow exhibitors to share equipment e.g. each entry in ground driving must immediately follow the entry before them, time will not be allowed to change harnesses.
15. Dormitory facilities will be available for both men and women. Exhibitors must furnish their own bedding and purchase a key at the Llama barn office. A fee of $5.00 per night will be assessed in addition to a $10.00 key deposit. Reserve beds Friday, August 21 in barn office.
16. No tents are allowed in tack stalls. Each exhibitor will receive 1/3 of a tack stall.

SHOWMANSHIP:

1. You should pre-enter showmanship like other classes.
2. 4-H members who compete in State Fair 4-H showmanship classes must show their own animal that was exhibited by them in one of the Llama and Alpaca performance classes.
3. Junior showmanship - all 4-H exhibitors in the 3rd, 4th or 5th grade on January 1 of the current year are eligible. Once an exhibitor is the junior showmanship winner, he/she is only eligible to compete in intermediate or senior showmanship in future years.
4. Intermediate showmanship - all 4-H exhibitors in the 6th, 7th or 8th grade on January 1 of the current year are eligible, including previous junior showmanship winners. Once an exhibitor is the intermediate showmanship winner, he/she is only eligible to compete in senior showmanship in future years.
5. Senior showmanship - all 4-H exhibitors in the 9th grade or above on January 1 of the current year are eligible, including previous intermediate showmanship winners, and previous senior showmanship winners.
6. Grand Champion & Reserve Grand Champion 4-H showman - present junior, intermediate and senior winners. Previous Champions must enter Senior Showmanship and qualify for Championship.

Llama posters and crafts must be entered through the county extension office. Please contact your county educator for details.

No crafts will be accepted at animal check-in.

CLASS CATEGORY CLARIFICATIONS:

1. Ground Driving - Member walks/trots behind animal and shows animal's ability to respond to commands given verbally and/or through a driving halter and reins. Member and animal are judged on training, driver's skill, coordination of driver and animal, smoothness, and accuracy of execution of obstacles. Class may be divided by the grade in school of the exhibitors, if the number of entries warrants.
2. Costume - Member and animal are judged on originality, difficulty in training animal to accept and exhibit costume, and suitability to theme (exhibitor's choice). At check in, exhibitors must submit a one (1) minute narrative to be read during their performance. Narratives must have the exhibitors name and exhibitor number on the sheet. Animal may not be shown in open costume and 4-H costume.
3. Pack - Member and animal are judged on their ability to negotiate obstacles and perform activities in the back country while carrying a pack. Six (6) specific obstacles are required: backing, bridge/ramp, jump, flexibility and maneuvering, inspecting foot, manageability with pack. Llamas and alpacas under 18 months of age will wear a training pack or pad with two (2) cinches, and filled panniers. Entire system must weigh no more than eight (8) lbs. Llamas and alpacas 18 months and older will wear a complete pack with two (2) cinches and panniers filled out with light weight material. Entire system must weigh no more than 25 lbs. Juniors will not remove packs. Animals shown in 4-H pack may not be shown in open pack, but may show in open obstacle or open public relations.

4. Obstacle - Member and animal are judged on their ability to negotiate obstacles. Five (5) specific obstacles are required: jump, change of pace, backing, bridge/ramp, maneuvering. Animals shown in 4-H obstacle may not be shown in open obstacle but may be shown in open pack and open public relations.
5. Public Relations - Member and animal are judged on their ability to negotiate obstacles and perform activities in the community. Five (5) specific obstacles are required: picking up foot/showing teeth, loading, backing, ramp/steps, petting by strangers. Animals shown in 4-H public relations may not be shown in open public relations but may be shown in open obstacle or open pack.
6. Showmanship - Member demonstrates the ability to show his/her animal to its best advantage at halter. Judging is based on the exhibitor's basic skill in fitting, grooming, following directions, and style of presenting the animal to the judge for evaluation. The animal's conformation is not to be considered. Animals shown in 4-H Showmanship may not show in Open Class Showmanship.

Healthy Development of Youth

Caring adults play an absolutely essential role in the healthy development of youth. As a rule of thumb, every young person needs three caring adults involved as positive role models in his/her life. Volunteers who truly care about the well being of young people provide the connection that is essential in 4-H Youth Development Programs.
